CITY folks who have examined Miss Lucy Butterfield's fine line of fashionable hats, say they see all the styles and fashions displayed in the most elegant establishment on 4th street, Louisville.

SODA WATER—Anderson & McRoberts are fitting up a handsome Soda Water Fountain at their New Drug Store. Call and get a drink of this delicious and cooling beverage. Only 5 cents.

THE Dress making establishment of Zoe H. Craig, has been rented by a most fashionable lady from the city, who will open it in a short time, in consequence of sickness, she is not able to open it at present. We have secured the services of a fine cutter to fill her place for the time being, and guarantee the latest style and fashions. Orders left at the store, or our Mantua making department, will be promptly executed.

THE PEOPLE WANT PROOF.—There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue as BUCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing every one that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by Bohon & Stage.

LOCAL NEWS.

HAYDEN BROTHERS will receive 60 pieces of new and beautiful prints next week.

REV. G. O. BARNES will preach at the Court-house, Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

An afflicted daughter of Mrs. Maria Gilbert, of this county, died of pneumonia this week.

The members of the Christian Church have recently hung new chandeliers in their church. It is a marked improvement.

Mrs. J. K. HELM, near Milledgeville, is quite ill with brain fever. Mrs. W. J. Giddie, of the same place, is very low with Consumption.

PERMANENT—Miss Nellie A. Bruce after an absence of a year or more spent with friends in Missouri, arrived home on Wednesday last.

We return thanks to Mr. Clark of the L. and N. Railroad for favors. He is an obliging gentleman and knows how to handle a locomotive.

A SOLITARY prisoner broods over the way of the transgressor in our Jail. A hunted dog ball bond would set Potter, the Ku Klux, at liberty.

DEER into the store of Hayden Brothers to-day and to-morrow, ladies, and look at their beautiful fancy needle parasols. They are perfectly lovely.

THE funeral of Mrs. Mary Hendricks will be preached at Mt. Moriah Church near Hall's Gap, on the 4th Sunday in this month, by the Rev. Mart Salles.

J. B. OWENS informs the public that he has a thoroughbred Boar, which he has licensed, and will permit him to serve Sows at five dollars each, cash in advance.

NEXT Wednesday night the District Conference will commence at the Methodist Church. A number of distinguished preachers are expected, among them Bishop Martin.

THE store of Hayden Brothers looks as fresh and sweet and pretty as a daisy garden in June. The elegant plaids, stripes, etc. are enough to tempt anybody to buy.

THE front of Bohon and Stage's Drug Store, with its nice new spring over coat of stone colored paint looks as fresh as a new Spring bonnet. The entire block should be similarly treated.

WHY should the fair sex monopolize all of the handsome "head gear"? They can do it no longer, for Hayden Brothers have for the "sterner" sex as handsome hats as those the ladies wear.

ORANGE.—We were shown an Orange this week, that was raised here by Mrs. Asher Owens. It is much larger than those brought to this market for sale, and is perfect in every respect.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. I. Wimsatt, with his new wife, and a party of ladies and gentlemen from Lebanon, were in town Wednesday night. Mr. Wimsatt left on yesterday morning, for his home in Somerset.

HAVING sold my stock of Undertaking a Mr. J. H. Stagg—my business must be closed up. All parties indebted are requested to call and settle at once.

E. A. TERNHEIM.

THE fish market has nearly closed in this section. There might have been double the quantity sold to our citizens if there had been a supply of them. Our people, in the absence of fresh fish, will be compelled to fall back upon beef, mutton, spring chickens, and hog meat.

DEATH.—Mr. Alex. Anderson, of Lexington, the father of our townsmen, W. H. Anderson, died on Monday night, in his 70th year. His disease was pneumonia, from which he has suffered for the last nine weeks.

THE Trustees of Danville have passed an ordinance forbidding the erection of any more frame buildings or the putting on of wooden roofs within certain limits. The law is a good one and should be enforced in other towns.

RELIGIOUS.—It is probable, we learn from an official member of the Christian Church, that El. G. W. Sweeney, who will commence a protracted meeting here, next Lord's day, will be assisted by Elder R. M. Gano, of Texas.

REV. R. L. BAKER, Chancellor of Central University, Richmond, will deliver a Lecture in the Female College Chapel, this evening, at 7 o'clock. The public are invited to attend. Mr. Baker, is a gifted and pleasant speaker.

THERE is a lady farmer in the West End who, from five cows, sells 60 pounds of butter each month, from the 15th of May to the 15th of September, and one of the leading Hotels in Louisville gets all of it at 25cts a pound.

THE gardens all about town look thrifty and pretty, and peas in bloom remind us that long the tender Spring chicken, which has not yet come into our market, will be on hand. A more savory and appetizing dish cannot be set before us.

WE but reiterate the expression if all the ladies about town, and speak the truth when we assert that at Hayden Brothers you can find the handsomest and greatest variety of ladies dress goods to be found anywhere outside of the large cities.

TO-day or to-morrow, if you will step into the popular store of Hayden Brothers, you can buy a Spring and Summer hat for Men or Boys, of either straw, palm-leaf, fur, or wool. They are new styles, and as pretty a head covering as one could desire.

THE untimely frost, so much dreaded by gardeners and fruit raisers, has been kept off by the winds which have been blowing almost incessantly from the East or West, during the past two weeks. Consequently, the fruit and vegetables are safe up to the present time.

ROLLS of golden butter, which are "born" of bluegrass and Alderney, adorned the shop windows of one of our enterprising family grocerymen this week. Twenty-five cents a pound was cheap enough, and one man bought all of it. He was promised more this week.

How has your trade been this week, we asked the Hayden Brothers this morning. They said it had never been better. In fact the question was almost superfluous for the crowds which filled their store every day assure us that it was all that a merchant could desire.

THE law against carrying concealed weapons seems to have but little terror for the colored population. Two of our most shiftless negroes are now under arrest for that offense. They have been the inside of our Jail before, on account of that, and other offenses. They seem to "kinder like" the prison fare.

POLICE COURT.—A "scrummage" between two of the Skidmores and Mr. Mearsh, took place up town, one evening this week. The parties were arrested and on being tried before Judge Dennis, the Skidmores were fined $5 each and Mearsh acquitted. Andy Yates, charged for throwing hot water on his sweet heart got $2 and cost.

PAINING by the store of Hayden Brothers the other day we heard one lady say to another who was in there "Well, Mary, I have been to every store in Danville, and I declare to you that the Haydens have the best, cheapest, and most elegant stock of goods of all." "I quite agree with you," the lady responded.

CAPT. J. S. MORRISON, the stirring Division Engineer of the C. & E. R. R., favored us with a call Tuesday. He informs us that his entire division, which includes King's Mountain Tunnel, is about completed and that he will commence track laying, as soon as a connecting track with the L. and N. R. R. can be bargained, which will be early in June.

DEPUTY U. S. MARSHAL, John West, passed through town last Wednesday evening, en route to Louisville, with Samuel Brock and Andy Vanhooker, two moonshiners, from Wayne county. Mr. Wyatt says he destroyed the still-house and all of the fixtures of Andy Slary, of Wayne county, who had threatened to kill him if he attempted it.

THE meeting at the Southern Presbyterian Church here, last week, closed on Sunday night last, with twelve additions, four by letters from other Churches, and eight on profession. Two of them had been members of other Churches—one an Episcopalian, and the other a Baptist. The Church is said to have been greatly revived, and the meeting a pleasant and profitable one.

A NUMBER of our citizens who have neither springs, wells, or cisterns, are compelled every year to haul their water for family supplies, over a mile or more. This is not economy. The money required to haul the water for one or two seasons, would pay for the cost of a 200 barrel cistern, and when the rain water is filtered through charcoal, it is the purest and healthiest for use.

Now that the Scarlet fever, and all other diseases have left our town and vicinity, would it not be well for our people to prepare their premises, and our Trustees to prepare our town against any visitation of Summer diseases? An abundance of lime and copperas sprinkled over, and around the vaults, stables, etc., of back yards and by-lanes, would render them clean and non-infectious. Try them!

THE creation of the Common Pleas Court will increase the receipts of the Sheriff's of the different counties in the District, at least one-third. Any one who will accept the position, and attend faithfully to the duties of that office, can make several thousand dollars per annum. We have a number of competent men who would do well to look into the matter, and govern themselves accordingly.

THE Commencement Exercises of the Stanford Female College, will be on Sunday, June the 11th, when the 10th and 11th Commencement Sermons will be preached in the College Chapel, at 11 o'clock, by Rev. J. B. Deering. On Wednesday, June 14th, at 8 P. M., the Annual Concert will be given, and on Thursday, June 15th, at 8 P. M., the Annual Address by Rev. G. L. Surber, and the regular Commencement Exercises will close the session of 1912-13.

C. S. R. R.—Not a word has been heard from the bids opened on the 1st of May, and it is presumed that the Trustees are still waiting to advertise again, or perhaps they have given up the Contractual.

A DAREDEVIL was fishing in the Hanging Rock last Saturday, and caught a fish which was unlike any he had ever seen before, and, having been told of the California Salmon, and of the duty of all who caught them, to throw them back into the stream, he placed the fish in a can of water and ran up to the "white folks" for information as to the species, and learned, to his delight, that he need not put that one back, as it was a "hog sucker."

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.

BILL ANN, a trotting horse, well known in this part of the State, was sold the other day, for $2,000.

BILL BRUCE and BOB WOOLEY, won the races at Lexington, on Tuesday last. Chase spoke proved the latter closely.

MIDGELL, Tyle, and Mr. Sully's bay filly, won races at Lexington last Monday. They are all three promising youngsters.

It is said that Wm. R. Astor, of New York, was the purchaser of the race horse Vagrant. Mr. Astor owns quite a fine lot of blooded horses.

We observe that a great many peach trees in this locality have died during the past two winters, seemingly without having been killed by the grub, or borer.

D. T. THOMPSON, Esq. of Washington county, sold at Louisville last week 57 fat hogs average weight 210, at 64 cents, and 1 bullock, weighing 1,300 pounds, at 44 cents.—[Lebanon Standard.]

THERE were only 150 head of cattle on the Lexington market, Court day. The demand was very limited, and sales difficult. Horses were in fair demand—brooks Mules brought from $100 to $125.

R. B. LANCASTER sold to Mackin & Hamilton 9 head of extra fat cattle at 34 cts; to Browning and Abell 90 head of hogs, averaging 220 lbs., at 71c; to T. R. Mattingly 5 head of hogs at 6c.—[Times and Kentuckian, Lebanon.]

LEWIS NATURAL.—Mr. Robert Walbridge, of Buckeye, has a young colt on his farm that has no tail, and more than one. It is a funny colt, but not much for anecdote, either.—[Lancaster Letter.]

NEARLY all of our farmers are doing planting corn, and many fields are up a few inches high. The cut worm, usually so destructive to corn, has caused but little trouble this season. Some farmers say they have seen but few of them in plowed ground.

G. A. BENDIS, of Milledgeville, has the largest mule in the country. It is a mare mule, 4-years old, and nearly 18 hands high, and large in proportion, and works finely. He values it at over $200—and says he would give $225 for a match to her.

As was anticipated Vagrant won the first race at Lexington last Monday, in a field of five. No one would bet against him. The time made was not near as fast as he could have made it if it had been required of the game little 3-year old. He was sold, for $7,000.

SEVERAL of our Kentucky traders report that fine horses sell for a better price in this State than can be obtained for them in the Northern market. If this is true, why do our traders gather a lot of fine animals and ship to, and sell them in a Northern or Eastern market?

MISS HAY and COWAN left here via Railroad, last Monday morning, with 16 head of fancy harness horses for the Philadelphia market. They were bays, sorrels, blacks and greys, and it was the handsomest bunch of horses which has left our market in a long time. They were neatly in pairs, and matched well.

AROUND Richmond, Va., there was a killing frost on the 29th of April, and ice formed a quarter of an inch thick. It is thought that the clover, and perhaps much of the fruit were killed. Last year, about the same time, a destructive frost occurred in Kentucky, which killed nearly all the fruit.

It is a fact that less than five years ago a large boundary of wooded land, heavily timbered with a variety of trees, and about three miles from Stanford, on a good road, sold for prices ranging from $3 to $50 per acre. A single acre of the wood was worth four or five times that sum.

A VERY large and enthusiastic crowd were present at the Lexington races on Wednesday. Fine weather and good track added greatly to the success of the day. The fastest time ever made, was achieved by Aristides, running 24 miles in 3:45 minutes. Kene Richards' Bullion, won the 3-year old race, in 1:46.

THERE were from 250 to 300 head of cattle on the market Mercer Court day, which, we learn from the Observer and Reporter, sold as follows: One lot of mixed cattle $31 per head; one lot of yearlings, medium, $27.50 per head; one lot of yearlings, medium, $25 per head; one lot of young calves, $18.50 per head; one lot of young calves, good, $22 per head; 14 yearling calves, good, $25 per head; 14 yearling calves, good, $25 per head; 14 yearling calves, good, $25 per head; 14 yearling calves, good, $25 per head.

If there is on earth a fairer spot than the Blue-Grass region of Kentucky, we would like to see it. Those who have never looked out upon these velvet green pastures and the broad woodlands covered with stately trees, centuries old, beneath which is a living and perpetual verdure, and not a brush, or weed, or briar to mar the beauty, with clear running brooks and numberless springs and ponds, we say, if those who have never seen such a section of country, would visit Central Kentucky at any time from the first of May, to the end of Summer, they would agree with us that earth has no fairer portion as a habitation for man or animal.

THE four celebrated horses of Mr. Lothian, of New York, arrived at Louisville last Saturday, via the Short Line road, in a special car, the property of Mr. Lothian, Parole, Tigres, Bessie and Tampico, are the string of fancy flyers which have come a thousand miles to compete with Southern blood for the rich purses offered by the Jockey Club at the May meeting. Parole, is the head of the list, a 3-year old mare by Lexington, and out of a Lexington mare. His racing blood gives promise of some startling running, and Vagrant will have to do his level best to beat him. Two of our Lincoln county horses, the property of W. B. Withers & Co., went down on the train last Monday, and as they have by Dick blood in them, we anticipate a good report of their running.

ABOUT the year 1800 an old Virginia gentleman with his wife and children and slaves came from that State to Lincoln County. He had engaged largely in tobacco raising in his native State, and to follow it here. After visiting the country around Lexington and several other counties in the central part of the State, he finally selected a large body of white oak land near the foot of the Knob in this county for which he paid more than he would have paid for the rich blue grass land of Fayette, etc. At this time the land he bought is not worth $15 per acre, while the rejected land is worth from $75 to $125 per acre. His idea was that the white oak land was better for tobacco than the rich black soil of the uplands. What a fatal mistake he made was long ago made quite apparent. Had he purchased the Fayette land his progeny might now be worth thousands of dollars.

CORRECTIONS.—In our last communication appeared the following errors: The Latin conjunction "et," for the preposition "inter." Campbellville, for Campbell, having reference to Cam Locust.

PLENTY of apples yet. Some cherries.

REUBEN STAPLES, our blacksmith, has left this place, and returned to his Hustonville. Reub is a clever fellow, a good smith, and deserves a liberal patronage. The people are quite anxious to have another good workman to fill this vacancy.

Is that smart Alex who hurried the lock from Mr. Fair's scales, if out of shot again, he can get two pounds for a quarter, at T. C. Jasper's, and have it charged.

MISS CARTER and CRAFT, drove about two hundred head of bush cattle from Tennessee, last week. They seemed to be selling them off very rapidly along the road, and at fair prices. There is very little stock of any kind in the country, considering the present supply of grass. Several of our farmers have large fields of grass nearly knee high, and not a hoof of stock on it, fearing the uncertainty of investment, and the cry of hard times ahead. This state of things surely cannot last long, and we see no need why any one should take the low odds of business to much to the heart, for that they will not get all the gold and silver they rightly deserve. After night, come the day.

Nobody hardly, at work this week. All seem to have the falling fever. Our crabs and fish, are literally piled and food. The fish seem to work fast, giving to all a more equal share of both fish and sport. But we do not admire the judgment, or rather information of some parties below, who have gone so far as to stick up the fearful word "Poison," on the banks of the river that were never known to be in an enclosure. Poor scare crow. Peter Dykes, would know better than that.

A LODGE of Good Templars was organized at Richards' Schoolhouse, last Wednesday night. A reformation of this kind has been needed in that community, as well as others, for some time, and we hope that it will live forever. SIMON PRINCE.

NADISON COUNTY NEWS.

Marionville.

SATURDAY the 6th of May, the date announced for the Good Templars' picnic and convention at Kingston, having arrived, our worthy P. C. T. Bro. Willis, kindly proposed to our convention and early to the morning proving favorable, we decided to attend. After a pleasant drive of a couple of hours, through a most beautiful country, we arrived at Kingston, where a large crowd of people had assembled. We proceeded at once to the Good Templars' Hall, where a procession was formed, and from thence we went to a grove about a quarter of a mile distant from the village. A more pleasant place could not have been selected. All that was necessary to complete our comfort was a few leaves, but we will not find fault with the trees on that score, as they did the best they could. We were somewhat disappointed at not finding Mr. Bain present, but we had two very entertaining speeches by Mr. Early and Johnson, both promising advocates of the cause. At the conclusion of the addresses, dinner was announced, which did credit to the culinary skill of the Kingston housekeepers. Time passed pleasantly until about half-past two, when we adjourned to attend to the business of the convention, which, though not quite so enjoyable as the preceding exercises was very instructive. The next convention will be held at Oxford Hill, on Thursday after the August election. Many thanks are due the people of Kingston, for their kindness and hospitality.

Up to this time, we have a good showing for all kinds of fruit, except peaches. At present, however, the weather is quite cool, though cloudy. If it should not moderate before clearing off, our hopes of a supply of this most delicious of nature's gifts, may be blasted.

DR. FARRER is building a neat addition to his residence. Mrs. Gray is also preparing to build a handsome dwelling in the suburbs of the village.

OUR merchants have just received their Spring stocks of goods. The display upon their shelves show that they are not behind in the matter of taste in selecting their goods.

MR. GEO. POLKINS, who has been in a precarious condition for some time, is rapidly regaining his health.

SCARLET FEVER has made its appearance in the neighborhood of Silver Creek Depot. MAY.
